

To Whom It May Concern:

I, Lia Shavliashvili have been with Lasha Goletiani for over five years, we have a four years old daughter named [redacted]. Lasha has been an inspirational figure in my life, I would have never imagined that I would have been able to finish college while having an infant baby, but due to Lasha's undoubted commitment to being an exceptional father he has made it possible for me to continue my education and peruse my dream.

When Lasha was incarcerated, it had very stressful effect not only on Lasha, as well as on me and our child. Raising a child as a single mother is challenging, however I was continuing my education so I would have finished college fast as possible to get a job and improve the condition in which my family was. The entire time of Lasha's incarceration was unbearable for [redacted], because she needed her father by her side. After Lasha was released from prison, he became a completely changed person. He was more caring towards me, [redacted], and others around him. He became a better father to his daughter, and more involved in family activities than ever before. He has changed for the better and is completely a different person. Afterwards, Lasha has been front and center of everything when it comes to our daughter, he has been doing everything without being asked. Lasha takes our daughter to kindergarten and picks her up after work. Lasha has recently enrolled our daughter into the swimming academy that he takes her twice a week. I am so glad that my daughter has such an amazing role model as a father. Lasha is very honest and reliable person and in the last five years he has proven by always being there for me and my daughter

Sincerely,

Lia Shavliashvili

TO WHOM IT'S MAY CONCERN:

I, Alex Zaretser, know Lasha Goletiani since March 2002. I worked with Lasha in United Soccer Club as a player and later on as a coach. His work ethics and the way he dealt with kids were exceptional. He has great skills working under pressure. Lasha is very reliable person since he was never late at the kid's practices or games. He was great asset for our club since he offered a lot of positive skills where I as a teammate and boss can learn from. I think very highly of him because he was always up to the task while working with kids and their parents.

Overall I think Lasha is a good person and great father. If you have any questions feel free to contact me at zaretser@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

This is to inform that brother Lasha Goletiani is a good parishioner and a good church. He was guiding himself with an aspiration to do good for the people within our church for help. He participated in cleaning projects in the community, many and various other projects he participated. He willingly took part in church service and the reward he did receive was spiritual in nature.

I would like to turn your attention to the good traits of Lasha's character, such as his gentleness, and his attention to people, as they are demonstrated by the above.

Please feel free to give me a call.

Sincerely,

Rev. Spiridon

My family has known Lasha Goletiani since the first week he came to United States. Lasha is a part of our family. Every birthday, New Year and other holidays don't pass without him together to celebrate, and If he is not there always feels like something is missing. We know how amazing father he is to his daughter, every day he would come over with his daughter to the park or bringing her back from kindergarten. We have a special close relationship with him and cherish. Our door is always open for him and he can always walk in our house whenever he wants. We have known Lasha since 2003 when he was a professional soccer player and ever since then he has turned into a family bond. We have many friends in common and it is visible how loyal person he is to all his friends. If you have any more questions regarding Lasha let me know and I will gladly tell you how amazing he is.
